

State of Vermont
Environmental Division of the Superior Court

Re: Request for Jurisdictional Opinion re:
Changes in Physical Structures and Use at Burlington International Airport for F-35A
Vermont Air National Guard Jets

Environmental Court Docket No. ____
Jurisdictional Opinion #4-231

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Now come Richard Joseph, Juliet Beth Buck, Roger Bourassa and James Marc Leas, by and through the Law Office of James A. Dumont, Esq., PC, each of whom was an interested person who participated in the request for a Jurisdictional Opinion, through counsel, and by and through the Law Office of James A. Dumont, Esq., PC, and they appeal the decision of the Jurisdictional Opinion #4-231 of Environmental Commission District #4 Coordinator Peter E. Keibel issued on or about March 21, 2013, to the Environmental Division of the Superior Court.

The statutory and legal basis for the appeal and/or interested person status is 10 V.S.A. §§ 6007, 8504 and Vermont Environmental Court Rule 5.

The property is the Burlington International Airport, in South Burlington, Vt. The landowner is the City of Burlington. The project applicant/lessee is the Vermont National Guard, an agency of the State of Vermont.

All interested persons are hereby advised that they must enter an appearance in writing with the court within 20 days of receiving this notice, or in such other time as may be provided in Vermont Environmental Court Rule 5(c), if they wish to participate in the appeal. A copy of Environmental Court Form 900 is attached.

Dated at Bristol, Vermont, this 4th day of April, 2013.

BY:

James A. Dumont

James A. Dumont, Esq.

PO Box 229

15 Main St.

Bristol, VT 05443

Jim@Dumontlawvt.com